Attention is called to the auction sale of household goods on Sat., Sept. 24, at 2:30 p. m., at the storehouse of Forsyth & Ingram. These goods are comparatively new and any one wishing to start housekeeping or add to their household goods will have a rare chance to save money, as the goods will be sold to the highest bidder.

Hoyt's "A Bunch of Keys" is announced for an engagement at the Barre Opera House on Friday evening next. This piece is of the farce comedy school but elaborate in its singing and refined in its action. The author has constructed a plot that is coherent as well as abounding in merriment. The music is all new, bright, sparkling, and catchy, and the dancing picturesque and unique. The cast is one of unusual merit and includes numerous well known performers who are particularly adapted for this style of performance.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

George L. Edson has sold his business to J. K. Lynde, who takes immediate possession. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Edson who makes this change on account of continued ill health.

The 53rd anniversary of the Robekah degree was celebrated Tuesday evening at I. O. O. F. hall. There were not as many present as expected because of the hard shower just at night. A short programme consisting of music, reading and recitations was given and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ainsworth left for their home in Moline, Ill., Monday, after spending the summer here at the old home.

Mr. Giardi has moved from Construction Hill to Barre to live.

Several from here attended Washington fair, but the very cold weather has kept many from going.

J. J. Kanaly is moving his family to Montpelier this week, where they are to live. L. O. Morgan is to occupy the tenement vacated by Mr. Kanaly.

Arrangements have been made so that the Sunday edition of Hearst's Boston American is to be brought here so the people can have them to read Sunday afternoon.

WARRANTS WERE NOT LEGAL.

Therefore Policemen Had No Right to Arrest Burlington Aldermen.

Burlington, Sept. 22.—The warrants issued by Alderman J. J. Shea to policemen authorizing them to bring absent members of the board to the meeting were not legal. That was the decision given yesterday by Judge Powers in the case of George Q. Stiles vs. G. E. Watson and M. C. Gratton. The legality of the warrants was the basis of the whole case and when it was decided that they were not legal there was nothing to do but to show the jury how great or how small the amount of damage should be.

The action brought by Alderman Stiles grows out of his arrest on October 10 last, when he was arrested by Policemen Watson and Gratton and taken to the city clerk's office to attend a meeting of the board of aldermen.

A FAIR IN SNOW STORM.

Fair-Sized Crowd Turned Out at Morrisville Yesterday.

Morrisville, Sept. 21.—The second day of the Lamoille county fair opened clear and cold and during the day it continued to grow cold and there were several squalls of snow before night but in spite of the weather there was a fair sized crowd in attendance. During the morning occurred the judging of horses by C. F. Pike for premiums and at 12:30 the unfinished races of yesterday were started.

COLOR PHOTOGRAPHY.

Scheme Has Been Discovered by a German Professor.

Berlin, Sept. 22.—Dr. Koenig of Hochstetian has discovered a method of color photography which will secure exact production of all colors. The process is as simple as ordinary photography and will not cost more than the ordinary work. Experts assert that the discovery is one of epoch-making importance.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION.

TO RENT—Furniture, up-stairs, best in the block, at low rent. Apply at South Broadway.

LOST—Wallet containing between $40 and $50 and papers. Finder please return to this office or to 420 North Main street and be suitably rewarded.

MONTPELIER.

The board of United States pension examiners held a meeting in the Federal building yesterday. Two applicants for an increase, from Topsham and Barre, were examined.

Dan Connelly was arraigned in city court on Tuesday evening on the charge of a second offense of intoxication. He pleaded guilty and paid a fine and costs amounting to $22.75.

The last reports from Miss Ethel Whitecomb who is ill at Beverly, Mass., were more encouraging. Her brother, Arthur Whitecomb, received a telegram to that effect late yesterday afternoon.

A new directory of Montpelier has just been published by Guy Richardson, 40 State street, Boston. The new directory contains over 3,400 names in the resident list, 1,000 more than any previous book, besides a classified business directory, list of streets, and of city, county and state officers and all public and semi-public institutions, etc.

A local order of Elks will be organized in this city on Thursday evening, Sept. 29. The charter members will be initiated and officers installed by the Plattsburgh lodge. The local branch starts with a charter membership of 36.

RANDOLPH.

Miss Theodora Auman, field secretary of the Woman's Missionary Union of Vermont, gave a very pleasing address in the vestry of the Congregational church last evening. Miss Auman is a very interesting speaker and sweet singer and those who attended the service were highly entertained.

Mrs. Azro D. Lamson and daughter, Miss Carolyn Lamson, who have been spending the summer in town, will close Idleton cottage this week and will leave here next Monday for their home in Philadelphia.

Rev. James Penders returned yesterday from a short business trip to Woodstock.

Robert Adams and Ray Huse will leave next Monday for Burlington, where they will attend the U. V. M.

Franklin Salisbury left yesterday for a few days' visit with relatives in Woodstock and Lebanon, N. H.

Miss Lucile Packard, who has been spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Packard, returned to Boston today.

SOUTH BARRE.

Dance and oyster supper at Unity hall this evening. Dance until 2 a. m.

Letter to Frank Carleton.

Barre, Vt.

Dear Sir: Here's a story with a point to it.

Devoc lead-and-zinc is a cheaper paint than lead-and-oil; costs less, goes further, wears twice as long. But this last don't belong to the story we're going to tell this time.

One of the best painters in Uniontown, Pa., is L. O. Rutter; does all the best work. We told him Devoc goes further than lead-and-oil or mixed paint.

He said: "I've known it for two years, and have increased my business by it. I take a job for less money than anybody else, and get my pick of the work. Don't give it away; for nobody knows how I do it."

The name to go by is Devoc.

Yours truly,

F. W. Devoc & Co.

P. S.—Reynolds & Son sell our paint.

Home For Sale.

The Templeton homestead on Currier Park must be sold at once to close estate. Apply to R. S. Currier, administrator.
